

DEFENSE VERDICT OBTAINED IN WOOD COUNTY

Ted Martin and Ryan Brown successfully defended a pain management physician in the Circuit Court of Wood County, West Virginia. The plaintiff alleged that our client failed to obtain informed consent and negligently performed an occipital nerve block. Plaintiff claimed that the medication used caused a neurological injury that resulted in her becoming disabled. On June 11, 2018, after a four-day trial, the jury deliberated for less than 1 hour before returning a verdict finding that our client met the standard of care. The jury trial was held before Judge Wharton. Wood County Civil Action # 16-C-472.

Disclaimer: Case summaries, reports of past results and individual lawyer biographies on this website describe past matters handled for clients of the firm. These descriptions are meant only to provide information to the public about the activities and experience of our lawyers. They are not intended as a guarantee that the same or similar results can be obtained in every matter undertaken by our lawyers. You must not assume that a similar result can be obtained in a legal matter of interest to you. The outcome of a particular matter can depend on a variety of factors—including the specific factual and legal circumstances, the ability of opposing counsel, and, often, unexpected developments beyond the control of any client or lawyer.

PEOPLE

Ryan A. Brown

Ted Martin

RELATED SERVICES

Medical Malpractice Defense