

FLAHERTY SENSABAUGH BONASSO JOINS WEST VIRGINIA CRAFT BREWERS GUILD

News December 2018

Flaherty Sensabaugh Bonasso recently joined the West Virginia Craft Brewers Guild (WVCBG) as an associate member. The WVCBG was founded to be an advocate for the state's community of brewers and is comprised of member breweries and related organizations, as well as craft beer enthusiasts, from around the State of West Virginia.

"Joining the WVCBG felt like the right move at the right time, as West Virginia joins the trend in other states and is finally starting to witness an increasing number of new breweries opening their doors to customers," said Caleb P. Knight, a business attorney in the firm's Charleston office and the firm's representative to the WVCBG. "Our firm regularly advises clients on a variety of regulatory issues, and serving the craft beer industry feels like a natural extension of our practice to accommodate a new and exciting business."

The WVCBG includes more than half of West Virginia's licensed breweries and is the industry's primary source for breaking news and information.
