

FLAHERTY WELCOMES ASSOCIATE JOSHUA R. CAMP

News October 2022

Flaherty is pleased to welcome Joshua R. Camp to the firm's Charleston office. Josh became an attorney because of his interest in business, which grew through his experience working in professional sports. Before law school, he worked with the New Orleans Saints and the NFL Players Association.

Josh primarily represents clients in business matters, deliberate intent and business litigation. He credits his time as a student attorney with the West Virginia College of Law Clinic for giving him valuable insight into building a relationship with clients and the need to put their interests and desires first.

PEOPLE

Joshua R. Camp

RELATED SERVICES

Commercial

Corporate and Transactional

Deliberate Intent

Professional Liability